

Specialists in Information Security

Press Release: 10th December 2001

Nemesys Computer Consultants offer free Computer Security Advice

Computer users are becoming more and more concerned about whether their business information is secure, and the threat of unwanted alteration or disclosure of information increases dramatically when companies connect their networks to the Internet.

To help Cambridgeshire businesses to protect their data, Nemesys Computer Consultants Ltd – specialists in information security – are running a 1-day Computer Security Surgery. Anyone with a concern or question about computer security can come along and get advice from a professional security consultant, free of charge. Experts will be on hand to discuss issues such as encryption, web security, and how to tackle security pro-actively.

The surgery will take place on Tuesday 18th of December, at the MWB Business Exchange in East Rd, Cambridge, from 9:00am to 5:30pm.

For further details, contact Nemesys Computer Consultants on 01353 727999. Information is also available on their web site at www.nemesys.com.
